Shri P.R. Patankar, Adv. for the petitioner.
Shri Ramakant Mishra, Govt. Adv. for the State.
The application for urgent hearing is allowed.
Heard.

The grievance of the petitioner is that ignoring the case of the petitioner, 5 persons have been promoted. Three persons are also working and one post is lying vacant. He submits that the petitioner is also entitled for promotion, but he has not been given promotion. He submits that the petitioner also submitted representations as per Annexure P-7 dated 19-12-2005 and Annexure P-8 dated 5-1-2006, which has not been considered. He further submits that for the present the petitioner may be given an opportunity of filing the detailed representation before the competent authority of the respondents, which shall be considered on its own merits in accordance with law.

Prayer is not opposed by the State counsel.

Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation raising his grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of the petition and this order, within three weeks from today, and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within three months from the date of receipt of the representation. It is made clear that the if any grievance still remains, the petition may avail the remedy available under the law.

With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of.
Consequently M.W.P.No. 241/2006 also stands disposed of.
